

Multi-Agency Resource Center

The American Red Cross will be participating in a Multi-Agency Resource Center for residents of Stephenson County on Monday, April 27 from 2 to 7 p.m. at the Lena Community Center, 497 Lions Dr. in Lena, IL, 61048.

The American Red Cross of the Quad Cities and Northwest Illinois, in collaboration with local, state, and non-profit partners, will be participating in a Multi-Agency Resource Center (MARC) to support residents impacted by the recent severe weather and tornado in Stephenson County.

The MARC is a one-stop location where residents can access a variety of services and resources to help plan their next steps toward recovery. Available services may include:

- Social services
- Senior support
- Mental health services
- Meet with Department of Insurance
- Information on SNAP benefit replacement
- Learn about potential consumer scams
- Obtain assistance from various agencies
 - Learn about clean up assistance
- Emergency supplies (totes, trash bags, gloves, and more)

Residents affected by the storm are encouraged to attend and connect with the support they need during this challenging time.
